Hi Scott- Here's the WebEx and meeting information. Thanks again for your help. Please let me know if you need any other information. MC

You have been invited to join an online meeting

When you join Webex, you will be asked if you want Webex to call you back and connect you via phone to the Webinar; if you are calling from a phone with an extension OR if you have difficulties with the WebEx "call back" method, please call the WebEx toll-free number below to join the seminar. Please mute your phone while listening to prevent feedback, but feel free to un-mute to ask questions or provide comments. You can also listen through your computer using headphones or speakers (if it doesn't disrupt your cubicle neighbor).

If you have not used WebEx before you may need to have IT install some software; if this has not been done you can run a temporary application by clicking on the link at the "WebEx Client Entry" page.

Please use the following directions to join the webinar.
