A screenshot of a web browser displaying the Data.WA.gov website. The browser's address bar shows the URL "https://data.wa.gov/dataset/Fund-Finder-Slicer-and-Dicer-Data-Approach/dbjb-3piv". The website's header is dark blue with the "Data.WA.gov" logo on the left and navigation links (Home, GetStarted!, Discuss, Learn) and social media icons (GitHub, YouTube, Search) on the right. A "Sign In" button is also present. The main content area has a white background. The title "Fund Finder -- 'Slicer-and-Dicer' Data Approach" is prominently displayed. Below the title, a paragraph explains the "Slicer-Dicer" data approach, stating it allows users to filter through 60 funding programs. A numbered list of four steps is provided: 1. Click on an "Eligible Recipient" column, 2. Click on an "Eligible Project" column, 3. (Optional) Click on a "Percent Match" and/or a "Funding Limitation" column, and 4. Review results. A "Note" follows, stating that all choices can be seen here. A "Show less" link is below the note. At the bottom of the content area, there are two buttons: "Export" and "API". On the right side of the page, there is a "COMMUNITY" button and a "SOURCE DATASET Master Fund Finder Data 11-27-2018" link.
