

South Central Sound LIO

Subcommittee on Stormwater and Infill Development

“Building Cities in the Rain”

Tuesday, July 30st, 2013 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.
Center for Urban Waters, 326 E D Street, Tacoma, WA
Commencement Bay Room 101 South
Map and Directions from I-5

Agenda:

1. Introductions (10 minutes)
2. Ground Rules (Heather) ( 5 minutes)
3. Review Project Context and Goals, Project Name (30 minutes)
  - Project Context (De’Sean Quinn)
  - Review Project Goals and Problem Statement
  - Review Project Name (Building Cities in the Rain?)
4. Detailed Review of Work Plan - See Attached ( 60 minutes)
  - Task 1. Collect and organize information into a background report
    - Specific sources of information to use (brainstorm additions to resource list)
    - How to make the background report most useful to key audiences
  - Task 2. Questions for Developers / Cities / Regulators
    - Specific questions to ask / topics to cover
  - Task 3. Organize regional meetings with developer/local governments/other groups
    - Looking for referrals or specific names of groups/ developers / cities
    - Looking for assistance of regional reps to host meetings
    - Other ideas for identifying innovative/cost-effective approaches
  - Task 4. Draw information into draft memo
    - Working session with subcommittee to review draft report?
    - Identifying other key questions / research needed
  - Task 5. Draft recommendations and Final Report
    - How to make this most useful – what do stakeholders need from the final report?
5. Next Steps (15 minutes)
  - Meetings for this Steering Committee - potential dates and times
  - Use of EZ View for posting information about this project.