

Transition Points = Reflection Points

CR-PAG Membership

| Category | PAG Member Organizations |
|---------------|--|
| Tribes | Yakama Nation, Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation, Spokane Tribe, Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation |
| Federal | U.S. Army Corps., NOAA Fisheries, Bureau of Reclamation |
| State | Washington Department of Fish & Wildlife, Washington State Conservation Commission, Oregon Water Resources Dept. |
| Counties | Yakima, Stevens, Grant, Lincoln; alternates – Chelan, Benton, Yakima, Lincoln |
| Cities | Vacant position |
| Environmental | Trout Unlimited, American Rivers, vacant position |
| Ag/Irrigation | Columbia Basin Development League, Washington State Farm Bureau, East Columbia Basin Irrigation District, Columbia-Snake Rivers Irrigation Association |
| Hydropower | Bonneville Power Administration, NW Power and Conservation Council |
| Business | Association of Washington Business |

PAG Discussion Questions

1. What is your understanding about the purpose for the Columbia River Policy Advisory Group?
2. What makes it worth your time to participate as a member?
3. Can you think of a topic or issue where Ecology sought advisement from the PAG? Did you feel that your input and views were considered and contributed to Ecology decision-making?
4. When the Office of Columbia River needs advisement and support from the PAG, what do you think is a reasonable role for the PAG?
5. When you think about PAG meetings, what do you see as their primary purpose(s):
 - a. Informational – time to hear what is going on in the basin
 - b. Opportunity to share your ideas, perspectives, and preferences on specific topics
 - c. Time to network and have fellowship with colleagues and other basin stakeholders
 - d. Other?
6. How can the PAG meetings be most valuable to you and your organization?