

Floods, Fires, Hurricanes... oh my!

A STATE RESOURCE... AVAILABLE NATIONWIDE

Intro to WCC Agenda

- WCC history
- Locations
- Recent Responses
- 2007 Lewis County flood
- Types of Work in a Disaster
- How Funding Works
- How to access WCC services during disasters

- Established in 1983
- Became an AmeriCorps Program in 1994
- Must be 18-25 (exceptions for disability status, military veterans, military reservists, and active duty dependents)
- Continuation of legacy of the Civilian Conservation Corps
- Provides field experience, networking opportunities, training and hands on experience
- Address natural resource, recreational assets, and disaster services
- 53 Full-time year around crews

WCC Locations

Recent Responses

- Flood Response 2018
Washington State
- Hurricane Maria Puerto Rico
- Hurricane Michael Florida,
North/South Carolina
- Responded to 7 wildfires in Washington
- March – April 2014: Oso
landslide and flood response
- Hurricane Sandy
- Galena, Alaska flood response
- Saipan Typhoon Response
- Missouri flood response
- West Virginia flood response
- Louisiana flood response
- Texas Flood Response

WCC Involvement in 2007 Lewis County Flood

- Sandbagging
- Muck and Gut
- Debris Management
- Hazardous Material Collection
- Donation Management

About the WCC's funding

Types of Work in Disaster Response

- Muck and Gut
- Sandbagging
- Flood Pumps
- Chainsaw Work
- Debris Management
- Volunteer Management
- Shelter Operations
- Supply Management

Accessing WCC Disaster Assistance?

Corporation for NATIONAL & COMMUNITY SERVICE

Washington

Conservation Corps

FEMA

WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OF Natural Resources

Questions?