A photograph showing the aftermath of a fire at a warehouse. The scene is filled with debris, including twisted metal, charred wood, and scattered rubble. In the foreground, a white ambulance is parked on a dark, reflective surface, possibly a pool of water or a wet ground. The background shows the skeletal remains of a large building with a collapsed roof. The sky is overcast and hazy. The text 'Winlock Warehouse Fire' is overlaid in green, and 'August 18, 2015 vegetable oil spill into Olequa Creek' is overlaid in white. The date '8.18.2015' is overlaid in orange in the bottom right corner.
