

DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY
State of Washington

Agricultural Burning Practices and Research Task Force

Meeting No. 117

Wednesday November 6, 2024

10AM to Noon

In Person Meeting at the Spokane Office of the Department of Ecology (4601 North Monroe Street) or available on Teams
When it's time, join your online Teams meeting with one of the following options:

For computer video and audio, follow the link below:

Join the Teams Meeting

For call in audio only:

Dial 1 (833)322-1218 Conference ID: 637 178 396#

Agenda Topics

Introductions and Agenda Review Karin Baldwin, Department of Ecology	10:00-10:10
Research Grant presentation and discussion: Enhancing Air Quality and Water Treatment through Sustainable Orchard Wood Utilization and Vermi-treatment Systems Paul Rossow, Department of Ecology Russ Davis, President, PERCA Inc	10:10-10:50
Washington Ag Burn Program Yearly Review Daniel Matsche, Department of Ecology	10:50-11:20
Discuss Best Management Practices Paul Rossow, Department of Ecology	11:20-11:30
Round Table Task Force Members share news from their respective groups	11:30-11:50
Public Comment	11:50-Noon

The next scheduled meeting of the Task Force is Wednesday, June 4th, 2025.

This is a working meeting of the Ag Burning Task Force. The Task Force Reserves the right to adjust the agenda as necessary.

If you have special accommodation needs, or require this document in an alternative format, please contact Paul Rossow (509)329-3574 or (509)329-3569 (TDD)

Karin Baldwin, Charman, Ag Burning Task Force